

Voice of Clear Light

Volume 13, Number 1 / February 2013

A Warm Invitation to the Summer Retreat

Sanghas Invited to Accumulate Long-Life Mantras

The worldwide sangha is warmly invited to attend this summer's retreat on the topic of "The Twenty-One Nails, Part 1," and to accumulate the Long Life Mantra for His Holiness Lungtok Tenpai Nyima Rinpoche, worldwide spiritual leader of the Bon tradition. The annual three-week retreat will be held June 23–July 13. You are welcome to attend one, two or all three weeks.

His Holiness Lungtok Tenpai Nyima Rinpoche, the 33rd Menri Trizen and abbot of Menri

Monastery in Dolanji, India, will be teaching at the retreat for about six days during Week 2 and Week 3.

Whether or not you are able to attend the summer retreat, all the worldwide sanghas are invited to accumulate the Long Life Mantra simultaneously for both His Holiness and His Eminence Yongdzin Tenzin Namdak Rinpoche, the most senior teacher in the Bon tradition and founder of Triten Norbutse Monastery in Kathmandu, Nepal.

Please plan to contact the representative on your country by June 1 with the number of mantras you have accumulated. Check the website soon for information on each country's contact person.

We plan to present a card to His Holiness with the total number of mantra accumulations during his time with us at the summer retreat.

Learn more about Summer Retreat