

What's New at the Tibet Shop

Spring is here at Serenity Ridge! Click on the photographs below for a close-up. We had an unusual amount of snow this year in Virginia, and finally the vivid green of new grass is visible outside the windows of the Tibet Shop.

We are preparing here for Geshe Tenzin Wangyal Rinpoche's upcoming spring retreat, Sacred Waters: The Healing Practice of Sipe Gyalmo (April 14 - 18).

We've just received a shipment of items related to this practice including:

- kapalas (brass cups)
- offering spoons
- melongs (brass mirrors)
- bhumpas (ritual vases)
- images of Yeshe Walmo (the manifestation of Sipe Gyalmo associated with the practice that Rinpoche will be teaching)

For a closer look at these items visit the Tibet Shop >

Happy spring!
